

Name & Surname:

Class:

Number:

A. Match the party types with pictures. (6p)

Wedding party – New Year Party – Birthday Party – Sleepover Party – Halloween Party – Fancy Dress Party

B. Put the words or phrases in correct gaps. (12p)

Invitation cards – guest list – beverages – fancy dresses – presents – guests

1. _____ : the drinks
2. _____ : names of guests
3. _____ short letters for guests
4. _____ : gifts
5. _____ : different costumes
6. _____ : people coming the party

C. Complete the list with the words given in the box (14p)

Decorate – invite – Buy x2 – Collect – Arrange –
Make

To do list

- _____ a surprise birthday party
- _____ the party room.
- _____ a guest list
- _____ the close friends
- _____ a few paper flags and hats
- _____ beverages and foods
- _____ a little Money for expenses and presents

D. Put the words or phrases in the correct gaps. (10p)

A little – a few – one – a lot of – No, thanks – some

1. A: Would you like to have cake?
B: I am full.
2. You need eggs to make an omelet.
3. A: Would you like a sandwich?
B: Yes, I'll get
4. There is milk in the bottle. We should buy some.
5. There are students in the class. There are 32 students.

F. Match the suggestions with the answers. (12p)

1. Why don't we invite Bob to your fancy dress party?
2. Let's go to a café and drink something!
3. Would you like to come our dinner party?
4. What about playing chess?
5. We should decorate the party room.

- (.....) I am afraid I can't. I am tired.
- (.....) b. You are right. He likes different costumes.
- (.....) c. Great idea! I like board games.
- (.....) d. Let's buy some decorations.
- (.....) e. That sounds great! I am thirsty.

G. Read the dialogue and make the sentences True or False. (12p)

Sam: Next Saturday is Fred's birthday.
 Betty: Really! How nice!
 Sam: What about arranging a surprise party for him?
 Betty: Great idea! What should we do?
 Sam: Firstly, we should decide on a place and prepare a guest list and invite some of his friends.
 Betty: I can prepare the list. What about having it in school canteen? We can ask permission from our teacher.
 Sam: Great idea! What about beverages and cookies?
 Rose: I can buy the drinks and food.
 Sam: Brad, can you get some flags and balloons?

Brad: Of course, I can.
 Betty: How about the birthday cake?
 Rose: He likes fruit cakes. Let's order one!
 Sam: Ok, I am responsible for the music and presents.

1. The surprise birthday party is for Sam
2. They will have the party at home....
3. Betty will prepare guest list.....
4. Rose is responsible for the music....
5. Brad will buy some decorations....
6. Fred likes chocolate cakes.....

H. Read the email and fill in the chart (12p)

To: Amy
Subject: Sleepover party
Hi, Amy, I am having a sleepover party on 2nd March at my place (you know my address). The party starts at 8.00 p.m. Would you like to attend the party? Please reply my e-mail? We will watch a thriller and there will be a lot of food and drinks! Love, Sally PC: Don't forget to bring your pillow!

Party Type:

Who has the party?:

Invitation for:

Date:

Place:

Time:

I. Suppose that you are Amy. Reply the e-mail in Part H. (10p)

J. Read the text and answer the questions. (12p)

Yesterday, I joined a theme party at Tim's garden. Its theme was Halloween. There were a lot of pumpkins around and candles in them. Everyone wore different costumes like witches, vampires, ghosts and zombies. I also wore a vampire costume. It was very interesting. There were a lot of food and drinks. I had a cheese sandwich and drank some orange juice. I left the party early because I had an important exam today. I studied hard and went to bed.

Chris

1. The party was - - - .

- a) at Chris' place
- b) a fancy dress party
- c) Halloween theme
- d) in December

2. Chris - - - .

- a) wore a witch costume
- b) didn't attend the party
- c) organized the party
- d) ate a cheese sandwich at the party

3. He left the party early because - - - .

- a) it was boring
- b) he didn't like the party
- c) he had an important exam
- d) there isn't anything to eat at the party

By Tufun